

Looking for a breeder of the Australian Cobberdog?

I have collated some of our breeder members and added links to their Facebook pages and websites below. Please take the time to research all of the breeders, the sizes and colours they offer, their philosophy and wait list time.

With puppy scams becoming more and more prolific, please take due diligence to ensure the breeder you choose is registered with the Master Dog Breeders and Associates (MDBA). You can run a breeder search on their website or give them a call: <https://www.mdba.net.au/breedercheck.html>
